Preface	15
Founder of Zhineng Qigong	15
About the author	15

Chapter 1 Summary of Zhineng Qigong

Concept of Zhineng Qigong	19
Definition of qigong	19
The meaning of Zhineng Qigong	21
1 The foundation theory, Hunyuan Holistic Theory	23
2 Systematic training of Zhineng Qigong	26
3 Valuable postures and techniques	30
4 Three ways of teaching	30
5 Does not stress on Orbital conduction or special mental activities	33
6 Attracting and not guiding the flow of qi	34
7 Zhineng Qigong is an 'open' form of Qigong	38
8 Administration of qi to treat patient will not harm oneself	40
9 Reactions of Zhineng Qigong are noticeable	40
Differences between Zhineng Qigong and other Qigong	44
Zhineng Qigong starts from 'unifying nature and humans' (tian ren he yi)	44
Emphasise on dynamic exercises	45
Emphasis on using one's own initiative (or conscious use of the mind)	47
Emphasis on practising in groups	49
Emit external qi to heal others without hurting oneself	50
The effects of Zhineng Qigong	50
Strengthening bodily health	51
Longevity	52
Preventing and treating illnesses	53
Improves mental ability	54
Cultivation of emotion and Daode	57
Develop hidden capabilities (Extraordinary Capabilities)	57
Zhineng Qigong is a unique human life science	58
Understand the objective of Zhineng Qigong	59
Guiding philosophies	59
Right attitude on traditional qigong	60
The demand on creative reinvention	60
Objective to achieve	62
Follow the order of qigong development	65
Follow the social development realistically	68
Be open and treat all as equals	69

Chapter 2 Summary of qigong science

Qigong Science is a unique science	75
Unique methodology different from modern science	75
'Inward-seeking approach'	76
Subject of research	76
A designated research objective	76
Structure of qigong science knowledge	77
Foundation	77

Technical	77
Application	77
Define the connotation and the extension of qigong science correctly	78
Modern research in qigong phenomena and qigong science research	78
Qigong science and human life science	79
Qigong and Qigong Science	79
Qigong Study and Qigong Science	81
Summary of the Inward-Seeking Method	83
What is the inward-seeking approach?	83
The 'inward-seeking' in traditional forms	84
The meaning of inward-seeking	85
Characteristics of the inward-seeking approach	86
Differences between the inward-seeking approach and introspection in psychology	87
Feasibility of the inward-seeking method	87
Inward-seeking as an approach to reveal the secrets of life	87
Fruition of the inward-seeking method	89
The inward-seeking approach as the means of qigong science research	91
Ability to reflect whatever is perceived	92
The Reference System of one's subjective world	92
Principles of the inward-seeking approach - the methodology	94
EC as the prerequisite	95
Execution of the inward-seeking approach is the process of uplifting life activities	95
The inward-seeking approach must rely on the knowledge of outward-seeking	96
Introduction to the outward-seeking approach	98
Analysis Method	99
Synthesis Method	99
Dialectical relations between the outward- and the inward-seeking approach	100
Contradictory versus complementary	101
Contradictory	101
Complementary	102
Complement each other to move forward together	103
Facilitating the development of modern science	105
Facilitating the development of modern scientific research in both breadth and depth	105
Promoting the change of the ideology in science	105
Combination of qigong science and modern science	106
Qigong will help to transform the future production method	106
Qigong helps to change our mode of life	107
Qigong development will open up a new domain of knowledge	107
Qigong will promote the development of human civilisation to a higher level	108
Chapter 3 Hunyuan Holistic Theory
The meaning of Hunyuan	113
The meaning of Hunyuan in the traditional qigong theory	113
Definition of Hunyuan in Zhineng Qigong science	115
Content of Hunyuan Theory	115
Hunyuan Qi Theory	115
What is Hunyuan Qi?	115
Different levels of Hunyuan qi	116
Characteristics of Hunyuan qi	118

Transformation theory encompasses matter transformation	118
Time-space Transformation Theory	121
What is Holistic Perspective?	122
Holistic perspective of the universe	122
Holistic perspective of Humans and the Universe	123
Humans and nature are a holistic entity	124
Humans and society are a holistic entity	129
The Holistic Perspective of the Human Body	132
Characteristics of the Hunyuan Holistic Perspective	134
Hunyuan Holistic Perspective is a materialistic monism	134
Yiyuanti is a level higher than primeval hunyuan qi	134
The levels in the Hunyuan Holistic Perspective	135
In Hunyuan Holistic perspective time and space have no boundaries	136
The holism of the guest (study subject) and the host (researcher)	136
Hunyuan qi of the fertilised ovum	137
Hunyuan qi of a foetus	138
Hunyuan qi of infants	139
Hunyuan Qi of Humans	141
Distribution and functions of Human Body Hunyuan Qi	142
Chapter 4 Conscious use of the mind
Definition of Consciousness (Yishi)	150
Various perspectives on consciousness	150
Perspective of Zhineng Qigong Science on Consciousness	153
Brief introduction to Yiyuanti	153
Introduction to the concept of Yiyuanti	154
Function of Yiyuanti	156
Formation of Yiyuanti and its changes	160
Changes of Yiyuanti	161
Formation of Mental Activity and its further improvement	164
Formation of mental activity	164
Effect of language on the formation of consciousness of an infant	165
Mental activity has to improve further	167
Classification of Mental Activities	169
Classification based on the content of mental activity	169
Classification based on the direction of mental activity	170
Role of mental activity in life activities	171
Mental activity is the highest form of motion of matter	171
The effect of mental activity in commanding life function	172
The mind is the commander of qi and body	172
The Yiyuanti theory is the important symbol of the scientific nature of Zhineng Qigong	173
The Yiyuanti theory is the forward development of the Hunyuan qi theory	174
Correct perspective on Ordinary mental activity and Extraordinary mental activity	175
Actively develop EC mental activity	177
The effect of mental activity on human life	178
The mind can change the strength of a person	178
The mind can make changes to a physical substance in the body	179
The mind can change the sensitivity of our body to receive stimuli	181
Effect of mental activity on bodily health	183

The effect of the mind on external physical substances	186
Empty-Quietness (Xujing) Method	188
Conduction Method	189
Focus Method	190
Methods of focus	190
Principles of focusing	191
Changes brought along by the focusing method	193
Using the mind consciously (with own initiative actively)	196
Upward-Downward and Open-Close mechanism of life activities	198
The fundamental qi mechanism of life functions	198
Methods to use the mind in Zhineng Qigong	200
Zhineng Qigong requires practitioners to consciously stay focused and mindful	203
Treat unwanted thoughts correctly	207
Methods to treat unwanted thoughts correctly	208
How patients and their relatives should use their mind	209
Change the mental condition completely	209
Preserve energy	210
Consciously use the mind to mobilise qi to attack the lesion	210
Be patient, do not be disheartened if illnesses are not cleared immediately	210
Understand qigong medical perspective	211
How to consciously use the mind	211
Develop the ability of the mind to command body and qi fully	211
The main focus of conscious use of the mind in Zhineng Qigong	212
The command should come from the source of mental activity	212
Progressively deepen the ability to perceive the body	212
Follow the requirements of qigong study to conduct daily activities	213
What is illusion and true-false invasion?	213
Illusion	214
True-false invasion	214
Extracts from ancient qigong texts	215
Buddhist texts	216
Daoist texts	218
How illusion and true-false invasion are formed	219
Formation of illusions	219
Formation of true-false invasion	220
Questions and answers on illusion and true-false invasion	222
Conclusion	227
The dialectic of materialism never rejects consciousness as a form of matter	228
From the view of natural science	228
Recognising consciousness as a form of matter	229
Consciousness is a form of matter and can be perceived by others	229
Fundamental difference between materialism and Zhineng Qigong	230
Chapter 5 Cultivation of Daode
The origin and meaning of the term 'daode'	238
Categories of Daode	242
Natural daode	242
Social daode	244
Natural-social daode	245

Social-freedom daode	247
Human bodily Daode and its process of formation	249
Relationship of Daode and bodily health	253
Relationship of Daode and Hunyuan qi	253
Effect of Daode and emotion on bodily health	254
What is Hanyang Daode	258
Why do we have to cultivate daode?	259
Cultivation of Daode improves bodily health	259
De and qigong practice are dialectically unanimous	261
Hanyang Daode is the way to change the status of qi, the route of "Transcending worldliness, entering sainthood and attaining holiness"	266
Cultivation of Daode is required to clean up human civilisation	269
Requirements of ancient qigong masters on Hanyang Daode	269
Maintain the 'middle and harmony' qi (Zhong He Zhi Qi)	272
What is 'middle and harmony' qi	272
How to keep the qi mechanism in the middle and in harmony	273

From conscious action to natural action	302
Treat the relationship between public and private correctly	303
Introduction to the Self (ZiWo)	304
What is the Self?	304
The relationship between the Self and the life activities of an individual	306
The ideal Self	307
Chapter 6 Posture & Movement
Head	313
Eyes	313
Tongue	314
Neck	314
Thorax	314
Shoulders	315
Elbows	315
Wrists, Palms and Fingers	315
Waist	315

Hip Joints and Sacrum-ileum Joints	316
Abdomen	316
Coccyx	316
Groin	317
Knees	317
Feet	318
Stay relaxed, quiet and natural	319
Relaxed	319
Quiet	320
Natural	320
Execute movements in a rounded, gentle and even manner	321
Serpentine movement and worm like wriggling	321
The waist as the commander	322
Stay easy (natural) mentally	323
Be aware of the 'filled' and 'unfilled' areas	324

Chapter 7 How to do well in Zhineng Qigong

Instill strong faith	329
The effect of faith and the criteria for it	329
How to build strong faith	330
About 'have faith and it works' and 'without faith it does not work'	331
Be clear about the objective of practising Zhineng Qigong	332
The objective of Zhineng Qigong practice is to serve the public	332
Face the future and face the world	333
Chanting	336
Hand posture (or mudras)	340
Regarding talismanic note	341
'Kaitianmen' - Heavenly Gate Opening	344
??Kowtow4 to seek the blessing of God and Buddha to heal	345
Out of body tour	345
Treasure Dao and Respect the Teacher	347
Practise seriously	350
Persevere in practice, maintain it everyday	351
Work progressively, accumulate the fruits of hard work	352
Utilise the group effect fully	353
Relaxed, quiet and natural	354
Combining practice with nourishment	357
Apply 'stillness' (ding) and 'wisdom' (hui)	360
Strengthen the understanding of qigong theory	361
Build qigong mentality through actualisation	362

Integrate life activities into qigong	365
Treat pathological reaction correctly	366
Make sure that the reaction is not due to deviated practice	367
How to differentiate whether it is an illness or a reaction	367
Treat reaction on qi changes correctly	368
The reaction of body sensation	368
Reaction of qi channels and acupuncture points	369

Reaction of the qi transformation of the internal organs	370
Reaction of clearing up the mind	370
Increase the intake of nutrition	371
Dress: maintain the balance of our body with nature	373
Create good surroundings	374
Be open in our action	374

Chapter 8 Creation of a qi field

Introduction to the creation of a qi field	379
The qi field created is not the same as the field as described in modern physics	379
The objective of the qi field created	379
The theory and mechanism of the creation of a qi field	381
How Dr Pang created the method to create a qi field	383
How to create a qi field	384
1. Accumulation of qi	385
2. Unify the qi within the field, move it unanimously	385
3. Issue the command to achieve the objective	385
The application of a created qi field	385
For healing	385
Teaching through the qi field	387
Lecturing	387
Perform scientific experiments	388
Production	388
The Eight Verses	389
Hun Yuan Ling Tong	389

Chapter 9 PengQi Guan Ding Fa - The Lift Qi Up Method

Mental condition	395
Physical Exercise	395
Preparatory Posture	395
1. Beginning	395
2. Front Raise Side Lift	397
3. Side Raise Front Lift	399
4. Raise Lift Diagonally	401
5. Completion	402
Beginning	405
Front Raise Side Lift	405
Side Raise Front Lift	407
Raise Lift Diagonally	407
Completion	408

Chapter 10 San Xin Ping Zhan Zhuang - Three Centers Merge

Posture Requirement	415
Preparation	415
Posture Adjustment (Cai Qi)	415
Beginning	415
Forming the Standing Posture	417
Posture Requirement	417
Completion	418

Concentration	418
Effect	419
Chapter 11 Xing Shen Zuang - The Body-Mind Form
Preparatory Posture	423
Beginning	423
Exercise 1 - Head	425
He Shou Long Tou Qi Chong Tian - Crane's head & dragon's head	425
Movement	425
Important points	425
Purpose	426
Exercise 2 - Neck and Shoulders	426
Han Jian Suo Xiang Tong Pi Jian - Squeeze the shoulders...	426
Movement	426
Important points	427
Purpose	428
Exercise 3 - Upper Limbs	428
Li Zhang Fen Zhi Chang Jing Mai - Hold up the hands, separate the fingers, ...	428
Movement	428
Important points	429
Exercise 4 - Thorax (Costal Areas)	429
Qi Yi Gu Dang Bi Lei Jian - Thrust with qi and intent	429
Movement	429
Important points	430
Purpose	430
Exercise 5 - Backbone	430
Fu Shen Gong Yao Song Du Mai - Bow body, arch waist to clear Du Vessel	430
Important points	431
Purpose	431
Exercise 6 - Waist and Lower Abdomen	432
Zhuan Yao Shuan Kua Qi Gui Tian -Turn waist, return qi to dantian	432
Movement	432
Important points	432
Purpose	432
Exercise 7 - Hip Joints and Sacro-Ileum Joints	433
Ping Zu Kai Kua Fen Qian Hou- Feet in straight line, open hip joints and s-i joints	433
Movement	433
Important points	435
Purpose	435
Exercise 8 - Knees and Ankles	435
Xi Gui Zu Mian San Jie Lian - Kneel onto the feet, three sections become one	435
Movement	435
Important points	436
Purpose	436
Exercise 9 - Lower Limbs	436
Tan Tui Qiao Zu Miao Tai Ji - Extend out the leg, fl ex the foot, trace circle	436
Important points	437
Purpose	437
Exercise 10 - Completion	437

Hui Qi Kui Yi Zhuan Hun Yuan - Return qi to one, turn blending circle	437
Important points	441
Purpose	441
Details of the Body Mind Form	441
Preparatory & Beginning	442
Purpose of the Preparatory and Beginning	443
Exercise 1 - Head	444
He Shou Long Tou Qi Chong Tian	444
Long Tou - Sideways 8 figure circular motion of the head	445
Exercise 2 - Neck and Shoulders	446
Han Jian Suo Xiang Tong Pi Jian	446
Exercise 3 - Upper Limbs	447
Li Zhang Fen Zhi Chang Jing Mai	447
Exercise 4 - Thorax (Costal Areas)	449
Qi Yi Gu Dang Bi Lei Jian	449
Exercise 5 - Backbone	450
Fu Shen Gong Yao Song Du Mai	450
Exercise 6 - Waist and Lower Abdomen	451
Zhuan Yao Shuan Kua Qi Gui Tian	451
Exercise 7 - Hip and Sacro-Ileum Joints	452
Ping Zu Kai Kua Fen Qian Hou	452
Exercise 8 - Knees and Ankles	453
Xi Gui Zu Mian San Jie Lian	453
Exercise 9 - Feet and Toes	454
Tan Tui Qiao Zu Miao Tai Ji	454
Exercise 10 - Completion	455
Hui Qi Kui Yi Zhuan Hun Yuan	455
Chapter 12 Xun Jing Dao Yin Fa - Tapping Exercise
Preparatory Posture	461
Beginning	461
Hand Channel	462
Foot Channel	463
Completion	464
Explanation	465
Chapter 13 Wu Yuan Zhuang - The Five One Form
Introduction to the Five One Form	471
Introduction to the foundation knowledge of the Five One Form	472
Related content about the five internal organs and the Five One Form	472
Introduction to the position of the Hunyuan Place	473
Introduction to the characteristics of the Five One Form	475
Mudra or hand posture	475
Pronouncing the syllables - Incantation	476
Ideation	479
How to do well in the Five One Form	480
Command the keys in practice	480
Understand the Hunyuan Qi Theory in depth	481

We have to command the levels of progress	482
Consciously cultivate temperament and character	482
Exercise 1	484
Hold onto sky and earth, interact with the hunyuan place	484
Important points and ideation	485
Effect	486
Exercise 2	486
Open the qi orifices and the three gates	486
Important points and ideation	490
Effect	491
Exercise 3	491
Crane's stand, mindful inside	491
Exercise	491
Important points and ideation	493
Effect	493
Exercise 4	494
Spread the wings to soar	494
Movements and postures	494
Effect	497
Exercise 5	497
Heart practice	497
Movements and postures	497
Movements and ideation	499
Effect	499
Exercise 6	499
Kidney practice	499
Movements and postures	499
Important points and ideation	501
Effect	501
Exercise 7	501
Spleen (pancreas) exercise	501
Exercise	501
Important points and ideation	503
Effect	504
Exercise 8	504
Liver practice	504
Important points and ideation	506
Effect	506
Exercise 9	506
Lung practice	506
Important points and ideation	508
Effect	509
Exercise 10	510
Cranes walk to move qi through out the body	510
Important points and ideation	511
Effect	511
Exercise 11	512
Trembling	512
Exercise	512

Important points and ideation	512
Effect	513
Exercise 12	513
Ascending and descending gracefully	513
Important points and ideation	514
Effect	515
Exercise 13	515
Qi of the Hunyuan place to connect with nature	515
Important points and ideation	516
Effect	516
Chapter 14 Healing
Making use of the mind, qi and body together to deliver external qi to heal	529
Healing with mind and qi together	530
Mental healing	532
Group healing through the formation of a qi fi eld	533
La qi healing method	534
Healing through the qi fi eld	537
Chapter 15 Narration of excercises
Lift Qi Up Method - Peng Qi Guan Ding Fa	543
Preparation	543
Beginning	543
Front Raise Side Lift	543
Side Raise Front Lift	544
Diagonal Raise-lift	544
Completion	544
Three Centres Merge - San Xin Ping Zhan Zhuang	545
Preparation	545
Completion	547
Body Mind Form - Xing Shen Zhuang	547
Preparation	547
Beginning	547
1. Head Exercise - He Shou Long Tou Qi Chong Tian	548
2. Neck and Shoulders Exercise - Han Jian Suo Xiang Tong Pi Jian	548
3. Upper Limbs Exercise - Li Zhang Fen Zhi Chang Jing Mai	548
4. Thorax Exercise - Qi Yi Gu Dang Bi Lei Jian	549
5. Backbone Exercise - Fu Shen Gong Yao Song Du Mai	549
6. Waist and Pelvis Exercise - Zhuan Yao Shuan Kua Qi Gui Tian	549
7. Hip Joint, Sacro-iliac Joint Exercise - Ping Zu Kai Kua Fen Qian Hou	549
8. Knees and Ankles Exercise - Xi Gui Zu Mian San Jie Lian	550
9. Lower Limbs Exercise - Dan Tui Jiao Zu Miao Tai Ji	550
10. Completion - Hui Qi Kui Yi Zhuan Hun Yuan	550
Xun Jing Dao Yin Fa - Method To Disperse Qi Along The Channels	551
Beginning	551
Hand Channel	551
Foot Channel	552

Completion	553
Five One Form - Wu Yuan Zhuang	553
Preparatory	553
1. Hold onto the sky and earth, interact with hunyuan place	553
2. Open qi orifices and the three gates	553
3. Crane's stand, mindful inside	554
4. Spread wings to soar	554
5. Heart practice	555
6. Kidney practice	555
7. Spleen (pancreas) practice	555
8. Liver practice	556
9. Lung practice	556
10. Crane's walk	556
11. Tremble	556
12. Ascending and descending gracefully	556
13. Qi of hunyuan place to connect with nature	557
Uniting Internal Organ Qi To One	557
